

Believe me ever faithfully yours
Joseph Lupton.
We have reengaged the Layton Hall for the 25th & advised all our friends of the change.

friend George Thompson who is likely to be visiting Leeds at that time. I shall hope to see you on the Saturday the 19th & from Birm. as you propose to spend a quiet ~~day~~ day with me, & then you will be able to join us at the Meeting on the 21st & go on to Manchester on the Tuesday morning the 22nd. I enclose these few lines for you in Mr Nichols' letter, which will show you how fully they our Bradford friends join us in Leeds in these plans.
Hoping soon to hear you are feeling better, & able to enjoy yourself again intended meetings, ^{twice} join ours in Leeds on the 21st & thus ^{it will be} ~~every year~~ at much less cost to your health & strength, & they have kindly at once acquiesced in this as the best plan. We had proposed taking tea together in Leeds on the 21st & having a conference of a few friends for a couple of hours, & then adjourning to the Large Hall & shall not tax your strength ^{there} more than you feel able to spare. Mr Baines M P in the Chair,

I am hope for Sir F. Crossley Bart. of Halifax, & several of our Bradford friends, & in all probability gave it

My dear friend

I was indeed sorry to learn from Mr. Victor & also from your letter to Mr Phillips on Monday or Tuesday after writing to you last Sunday to Paris, (ack'g yours 19th & from Lucerne) how poorly you have been, & evidently much worse than when you wrote to me on the 19th.
Under all these circumstances we have decided in Leeds to adjourn the intended meeting to the 21st October, & make it more of a West Riding demonstration, some of our friends in Bradford have kindly given up their
